

Spring 2006 Accreditation Cycle Results

Below is a list of organizations who received accreditation recently, along with the number of years received. Based on the Spring cycle 2006: 65% of re-accrediting organizations received 4 year accreditations, 35% received 6 year accreditations.

Below that is a table showing which criteria/key elements were problematic and needed progress reports.

Allegra Learning Solutions – 4 years accreditation
Arkansas Nurses Association, Provider Unit – 4 years accreditation
Arkansas Nurses Association, Approver Unit – 4 years accreditation
American Association of Occupational Health Nurses, Provider Unit – 6 years
American Association of Occupational Health Nurses, Approver Unit – 6 years
Bay Pines VA Healthcare System – 2 years (NEW applicant)
Center for Biomedical CE – 4 years accreditation
Dermatology Nurses Association, Provider Unit – 4 years accreditation
Dermatology Nurses Association, Approver Unit – 4 years accreditation
Federal Bureau of Prisons – 2 years (NEW applicant)
Homestead Schools – 6 years
Institute for Johns Hopkins Nursing – 4 years accreditation
Loma Linda University Medical Center - 2 years (NEW applicant)
Maine Medical Center – 6 years
Medical Education Collaborative – 4 years accreditation
RN.com – 6 years accreditation
Society of Gastroenterology Nurses and Associates, Inc., Provider Unit – 6 years
Society of Gastroenterology Nurses and Associates, Inc., Approver Unit – 4 years
St Francis Health System – 4 years accreditation
Stanford Hospitals & Clinics – 2 years (NEW applicant)
TeamHealth – 2 years (NEW applicant)
AHC Media (formerly Thomson American Health Consultants) – 6 years
University of Rochester, Strong Memorial Hospital – 4 years accreditation
University of Nebraska Medical Center – 6 years
VA New England Health Care System - 4 years accreditation